White Half Bottles

C14	Ayala Brut Majeur, Aya France, N.V.	[W.S. 91]	$ 45
	Dry and creamy in texture, this well-cut Champagne offers flavors of ripe yellow apple, white raspberry, anise, pastry and lemon curd. Completed by a stony, mineral-tinged finish.
C17	Chardonnay, Russian River Ranches Sonoma-Cutrer, Sonoma 2013		$ 27
	Fruit aromas of Golden Delicious apple, Bosc pear and white peach are accented with toasted nuts, oak spice, a hint of vanilla and a touch of butter. This wine has the signature Sonoma-Cutrer balance between elegance and richness for a medium-bodied, mouth-filling wine. The creamy richness is balanced with a bright acidity and highlighted with flavors of apple, pear and lemon zest.
C12	Conundrum, California 2013		$ 36
	Aromas of tangerine, green apple and honeysuckle with exotic flavors of peach, apricot and tropical fruit. Wonderful as an aperitif, or pair it with an array of flavorful dishes such as fresh seafood, salads, spicy cuisine, fish tacos and burgers. Best served chilled with family and friends.
C20	Pinot Grigio, Alois Lageder, Magre Italy 2013		$ 25
	Alois Lageder Pinot Grigio is a brilliant straw yellow with green shimmer. There are quite pronounced and expressive aromas of flowers with somewhat spicy notes. There is rich flavor in the mouth, with slight smokiness at the back and a good, fresh finish. Pairs well with fish or meat starters, pates and terrines, fish and shellfish, poultry, white meat and mushrooms.
C23	Sauvignon Blanc, Silverado Miller's Ranch, Napa 2013		$ 34
	These Sauvignon Blanc vines are rooted in a special site between Hopper Creek and the Napa River. Blessed with deep soil, Miller Ranch is also in a climate sweet spot: cool enough in the morning to give the wine refreshing aromas of grapefruit, lime and tangerine; warm enough in the afternoon to give the wine a smooth silky texture and a juicy finish.

Red Half Bottles

406	Burgundy, Domaine Pavelot, Savigny Les Beaune France 2011		$ 36
	Red, deep cherry color, purple garnet, a bouquet focused on the small black and red fruits (blackcurrant, cherry, raspberry). Roundness and volume, balance and power in just proportions often evoke the cherries with a beautiful elegance.
402	Cabernet Sauvignon, Hess Allomi Vineyards, Napa 2012		$ 38
	The Allomi Vineyard is relatively young, and it has one thing that Cabernet Sauvignon surely loves: some heat, and a long, lingering growing season that allows fruit to ripen slowly on the vine, gaining complexity and layers of flavor. There's a hint of floral aromas on the nose, with vanilla, oak spice and even a touch of pepper. Full bodied red fruit flavors typical for Cabernet are joined by notes of currant and blackberry with moderate, well-integrated tannins with wonderful balance and a soft, round, almost lush mouthfeel. Distinctive accents from American oak complete the profile, surely one of Napa's great treasures from Pope Valley.
501	Cabernet Sauvignon, Keenan, Napa 2011		$ 62
	This 100% Cabernet Sauvignon blend displays amazing concentration and structure with complex aromas and a balanced mid-palate.
151	Chateauneuf Du Pape, Telegramme, Rhone France 2010	[W.S. 90]	$ 60
	A fresh, pure, silky style, with red currant, licorice and shiso leaf notes gliding over the long, supple, mineral finish. Textbook for the vintage, with the fruit and minerality stretching out at the end.
217	Claret, Ramey, Napa 2012	[W.A. 92]	$ 65
	The 2012 Claret appears to be another outstanding example of value-priced Cabernet Sauvignon. A 6,000-case blend of 70% Cabernet Sauvignon, 24% Merlot and the rest Malbec, Syrah, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot, consumers will love this beauty because of its forward, classic Cabernet style.
453	Zinfandel, Seghesio Sonoma County Sonoma 2012	[W.S. 90]	$ 35
	Jammed with zesty fruit, offering bold blackberry and licorice aromas and rich, well-structured black cherry, smoky pepper and grilled anise flavors.
351	Pinot Noir, Saintsbury, Carneros 2011	[S.T. 89]	$ 42
	Bright, medium cherry-red. Pungent aromas of cherry, raspberry, spices, cola and orange zest, complicated by a smoky nuance. Bright, lively red fruit flavors are silky and easygoing. Very good palate presence and texture here, and more tangy and gripping on the finish than the 2010 model.

Californian Pinot Noir

- 250 Angeline by Martin Ray 2013 $ 42
 This Pinot Noir is a lively garnet color with aromas of intense fruit, luscious cherries and spice. Bright fruit flavors of fresh cranberry and maraschino cherries with lively acidity and orange zest rounded out by a sweet, toasty oak on the finish.
- 204 Calera, Central Coast, California 2012 $ 54
 The bouquet of our 2012 Central Coast Pinot Noir is enticing; aromas of deep, dark berry spice and violets that hint at the depth of this delightful wine. Juicy black currant, plum and cherry cola flavors accent the round texture, gentle structure and soft oak undertones. This wine is extremely flavorful and a fantastic value.
- 215 Dumol, Russian River Valley 2010 [S.T. 94] $ 191
 Saturated ruby. Deeply pitched aromas of cherry-cola, licorice and incense, with a spicy note adding vivacity. Broad and intensely flavored, offering palate-staining dark fruit flavors and an energizing lick of blood orange. Chewy and focused on the impressively long finish, which features dusty tannins and clinging dark berry character.
- 218 Failla, Sonoma 2012 $ 80
 This blend of maturing Sonoma Coast grape sources has outgrown its "young-vines" tag while still offering the pleasures of freshness and drinkability. Vinified in the same manner as our vineyard designated Pinots, this vintage was aged in French oak, about 20% new. Warm tones of baking spice, wild sage, balsam and classic cherry coulis. Fine tannins and bright, juicy acidity give structure to the red berry palate.
- 414 La Crema Arroyo Seco, Panorama Vineyard, Monterey 2012 [S.T. 90] $ 78
 This is a supple, elegant Pinot Noir with all the hallmarks of the Arroyo Seco appellation. The nose is rich with dark spice, earth notes, coffee bean and blackberry while the palate shows the minerality influence of the well drained soils and the intensity offered by tightly planted, small vines. Layers of dark plum, wet stones, cedar and cocoa linger through the velvety finish.
- 150 Lucky Star, California 2013 $ 38
 Ripe red raspberry and cherry aromas carry through to the palate, balanced by a crisp yet silky finish. The wine pairs well with grilled chicken or pasta.
- 354 Maggy Hawk Jolie, Anderson Valley 2010 $ 150
 Moderately light reddish purple color in the glass. Uplifting aromas of cherry, strawberry, spice and underbrush. Delicious and full in the mouth, with a good attack of dark cherry fruit accented with anise, dark chocolate and toasty oak. Impressive harmony and elegance with complimentary integration of oak. The finish is polished and pleasant.
- 559 Mark West, Sonoma County 2012 $ 36
 Sourced primarily from California's coastal appellations, these vineyards provide grapes of intense fruit aromatics and flavors. After a gentle crushing, the grapes were fermented in small tanks with daily punch downs to extract color and flavors. Pressed lightly, the wine was then aged in French and Hungarian oak for approximately eight months before bottling. Red and black cherry flavors abound with a note of spice from oak aging. Rich in texture with a lingering finish and versatile enough to complement just about any cuisine.

Offers a nice balance of restrained fruit and subtle soil tones. Finishes with an edge of youthful acidity and good length. This was the best of the current set of pinots from this winery, as the others struck me as too low-toned, reduced or dry, or simply lacked fruit intensity. | | |

Californian Zinfandel

- 557 Edmeades Piffero Vineyard, Redwood Valley 2011 $ 65
 The 2011 Piffero Zinfandel greets you with aromas of ripe cherries, dried cherries, and cherry liquor that mingle with warm notes of cinnamon and spice. It has a round and lush texture suggestive of cherries dipped in chocolate, with a lively acidity that balances the ripe fruit characteristics. Flavors of toasted oak, vanilla, and café au lait linger on the finish.
- 656 Four Vines Biker, Paso Robles 2011 $ 55
 Biker's legendary blackberry aromas mix with cherry, plums, menthol, white pepper and a touch of meaty black olives and oregano. A touch of cedar box from oak aging adds to the complexity. The Bad Boy of Zin delivers again with flavors of plums, cherries and boysenberries with a smoky char to balance the fruit. A sweet fruit entry digs deep on berry flavors and finishes smooth and bold with a long, long lingering finish. A massive and in-your-face Zin, taking no prisoners. Biker rocks!
- 306 Hartford Old Vine, Russian River Valley 2011 [S.T. 90] $ 90
 Inky ruby. Bright cherry and black raspberry aromas are complemented by hints of dried rose, black tea and star anise. Lively cherry and dark berry flavors pick up spiciness with air, along with a touch of candied flowers. Shows good energy on the finish, which is firmed by youthful, fine-grained tannins. This rich but energetic zin will work well with strongly seasoned foods.
- 609 Kuleto Estate, Napa 2009 $ 85
 This estate Zinfandel expresses the more feminine side of the variety, perhaps due to the gentleness of the growing season. The nose smells of candied violets and black cherries. The mouth is very pretty and surprisingly soft.
- 661 Marietta Cellars Old Vine Red #60, Alexander Valley $ 38
 Marietta Cellars has been making this multi-vintage, primarily Zinfandel-based red for over 30 years. Aromas of red fruit are supported by darker fruit on the palate with licorice, mineral, and spice. The terroir of the wine's Sonoma and Mendocino County origins lend themselves to an acidity that concisely drives the finish of this traditional field blend.
- 560 Rancho Zabaco Sonoma Heritage Vines, Sonoma 2013 [W.A. 89] $ 40
 This is a beautiful Zinfandel and the good news is there are over 30,000 cases of it. Coming from three of Gallo's top Zinfandel vineyards, Stephani, Frei Ranch and Chiotti, most of them in Dry Creek, this blend of 98% Zinfandel and 2% Petite Sirah tips the scales at a lofty 14.8% natural alcohol. The wine has a deep ruby color, and a seductive, peppery, meaty, Côte du Rhône-type nose revealing lavender and roasted herb characteristics. No hard edges are found in this medium to full-bodied, fleshy, nicely concentrated Zinfandel.
- 108 Rombauer, Napa 2012 $ 72

 A lively, zesty red that offers bright cherry and tarragon aromas and sleekly layered flavors of briary raspberry, nutmeg and fresh-cracked black pepper.
- 114 Storybook Mountain Vineyards 2008 $ 79
 The wild berry flavor tinges toward brighter fruit, layering vibrant strawberry, tart raspberry and cracked black pepper into a savory Napa Valley red. This wine is balanced, sophisticated and elegant, this gains with air and would be delicious with lamb.
- 210 Wine Guerrilla Rebel Cru, Sonoma 2009 $ 38
 40% Zinfandel, 40% Cabernet Sauvignon, 10% Syrah, 10% Petite Sirah).
 You wouldn't expect a sissy blend from a revolutionary. Our new Cru gets big and bold with zinfandel, cabernet sauvignon, syrah and petite sirah. It's like the Fab Four of wine—zin the "cute one," cab the "clever one," syrah the "quiet one" and petite sirah the "funny one." Together, they make beautiful music.
